OPEN EDUCATION LETTER

TO: Ts'kw'aylaxw Kindergarten to Grade 12 Students

Date: February 3, 2022

ATTENTION: Parents of TFN High school and Elementary Students

REGARDING: Education Funds to be Utilized for COVID supplies

We know times are rough right now due to the COVID-19 pandemic and Ts'kw'aylaxw Administration Staff and Chief and Council are doing their best to assist during these times.

TFN Education Department wants to send out a one-time payment $200 for each student to alleviate the costs to each household for COVID supplies during the pandemic. The payment will be sent out starting next week February 8th, 2022 for process and then deposited into your account later in the week.

If you can fill-out the form, please provide your current mailing address so we may have all the information up to date in our system. As well as, name of students, grades, schools they are attending and if we do not have your banking information please send a copy of a void cheque or your direct deposit form.

For more information please contact Jessica Dan at (250) 256-4204 ext. 353 or email education@tskwaylaxw.com

Best Regards,

Jessica Dan; Education Coordinator
